

Joshua Tree National Park
Roadrunner Shuttle Bus Information
April - May 2019

The Roadrunner Shuttle Bus will operate Fridays - Tuesdays in April.
Weekends in May through Memorial Day weekend.

During the Spring 2019 Pilot Season, the entrance fee is waived and there is no fee to ride the Roadrunner Shuttle Bus.

What to bring:

There is no water available in the park. Bring at least one gallon per person, per day, especially if you will be hiking or climbing in the park.

- Sunscreen and protective clothing: There is little to no shade in most places. Protect your skin from the elements and your body from dehydration. Sunglasses, long-sleeved shirt and pants, and a wide-brimmed hat are a must in the desert.
- Food: There is no food available in the park. Bring salty snacks and food for an entire day.
- Layers: Temperatures change drastically in the park over the course of a day. Bring layers of clothing for the chilly mornings and late evenings.
- Camera: Boulders, Joshua trees, cactus, and more!
- Map: You won't have cell service in the park, so be sure to pick up a free map and newspaper at a park visitor center before boarding the bus.

What to know before you go:

- Cell service: There is no cell service available in the park.
- Last Bus of the day: READ the schedule to know when the last bus stops at each stop and exits the park.
- Services: There are no food or grocery services in the park.
- Staying overnight: Campgrounds are often full. Plan ahead and make reservations.
- Bus routes: Confirm your route with the bus driver. Understand if the bus is going eastbound or westbound.
- Bus stops: Buses will only drop-off and pick-up at designated stops.
- Accessibility: All buses are equipped with wheelchair lifts.
- Pets: Pets in crates are allowed on shuttle buses if they fit on the rider's lap. They are not permitted on the floor or in the aisle.
- Bicycles: Each bus can carry two bicycles on the rack on the front of the bus.
- Bouldering and Climbing Equipment: Equipment is permitted. Climbers are encouraged to use the Roadrunner Shuttle Bus to travel to and from the various climbing and bouldering locations.
